The petition will be presented to Mgr.

Satolli as a token of esteem for his work.

Father Corrigan, of Hoboken, was credited with having written the petition but he denies that he did so. He says, however, that he was asked to sign it.

Father Corrigan gave a banquet yesterday at his home in Hoboken in honor of his litty-sixth birthday, and several of the priests who signed the above petition were present. Bishop Wigger was invited, but could not attend.
